CONTENTS.

PAGE

About Charles Lamb 21
After Winter 102
April Fool 51
Beau Brummel 231
Campaign of Napoleon I., The 155
Deceased Wife's Sister, The 130, 267, 363
Epigrams by Post 572
Frivolity and Fanaticism 320
Frolics of Fashion, The 91
Further Flashes from the Firelight 397

"GOOD-BYE, SWEETHEART!"

NIGHT.

Chapter I. What the Author says 1
„ II. What the Author says 4
„ III. What Jemima says 15
„ IV. What Jemima says 145
„ V. What Jemima says 149
„ VI. What the Author says 418
„ VII. What the Author says 423
„ VIII. What Jemima says 429
„ IX. What the Author says 557
„ X. What Jemima says 562
„ XI. What the Author says 565
„ XII. What Jemima says 568

How I was rusticated from Cambridge 112
Lines on a Handful of Dust 260
Memorable Pope, A 476
May Morning in Cyprus 227
Maggie 82
My Lords and Gentlemen 52
Men in the Iron Masks, The 172

PAGE

My Name:

Chapter I. What I did with my Name 185
" II. Some of the Consequences of my Name . . . 188
" III. I contemplate burying myself and my Name in the Country 190
" IV. I make the Acquaintance of a Gentleman from whom I derive my Name 192
" V. I become totally oblivious of my Name as of all the other Ills of Life 196
" VI. I hear more of my Cousin and Namesake . . 199
" VII. I become desperately jealous of my Rival, and am on the point of revealing my true Name . . . 201
" VIII. I become perfectly reconciled to my Fate—my Name included 206

Night Adventure, A 37
Napoleon, First Campaign 65
Napoleon's Project of Invading England 346
No Loving Voice 83
Napoleon's Campaign of Ulm and Austerlitz 506
Postman's Knock, The 380
Retribution 536
Rhineland Eighty Years ago, In the 213
Sir John Hill 261
Spring Flowers 118
Still Waters 240
Superhuman Dwelling Places 104
Summer 393
Sworn on the Crucifix 331
Story of Françoise, The 492
Taming of the Shrew 539
Take it as you find it 210
Temple Life 408
The Wooing o't. A Novel 289, 433
To Cœur Volage 319
Twenty-Thousand-Pounds Widow, The 524
Thefts from an old Keepsake 550
Visit to Arenenberg, A 255